WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN DIES ON RAILROAD TRACK.

[TRIBUNE SPECIAL.]

Charleston, Feb. 2.—Joseph Turner fell cead upon the railroad track at this place teday, under circumstances that would indicate heart failure. Mr. Turner, who has been living in Park City for the past two years, came over to Charleston yesterday on a visit to frleads and relatives. He complained last night of his heart, but otherwise was in the best of health. At about 9:30 this morning he started for the Co-op store to transact some business with G. W. Daybell. He told his wife he would be back in about an hour. When the hour had expired she started out to meet him. She found his body on the railroad track, about 109 yards from the house. He had been dend for some time. Dr. Cift was called, but could do nothing, as life had been extinct for hours when he arrived. As it was plain that Mr. Turner had died from natural causes and there were no indications anywhere of foul play, it was decided that an inquest would be unnecessary.

Joseph Turner had lived in this community for thirty years and was held in the highest respect by all who knew him. He was 50 years old, and leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters. He leaves two sisters also, one of whom lives in Sait Lake.

ISAAC A. REYNOLDS PASSES TO HIS REWARD.

[TRIBUNE SPECIAL.]

Chester, Utah. Feb. 2.—Isaac A. Reynolds died of pneumonla, at his residence in Meadowville, on January 20th. Mr. Reynolds was born in Canoy county. Virginia. September 8, 1849. He was the son of Charles and Sarah Reynolds. The family moved to Missouri in 1856. An elder brother participated in and lost his life on the Union side in the Civil war. Later another brother was killed by accident while working in the mines.

Mr. Reynolds came to Utah in 1889, and settled at Meadowville, where he resided until his death. He was stricken with his fatal illness on January 21st, and fought the dreaded disease for nine days, when he passed peacefully away. All that kind care of family and many friends and the services of a skillful physician could do was done for Mr. Reynolds. Dr. W. W. Woodring was the attending physician. Mr. Reynolds leaves a wife and six children, one grandchild and a sister. Mrs. Alexander Patterson, to mourn his untimely demise.

Isaac A. Reynolds was a good, honest, industrious and respected citizen, and the sympathy of the whole community goes out to the stricken family.
